

For more information:
Gary Ledoux (310) 783-2818
gary_ledoux@ahm.honda.com

For Immediate Release

American Honda Announces New Body Repair News For 2016 Civic

TORRANCE, CA., November 10, 2015 – American Honda is pleased to announce the latest Body Repair News bulletin covering the all-new 2016 Honda Civic. Of particular interest is the use of a 1,500 MPa steel rear frame, aluminum front bumper beam, and resin composite front bulkhead.

Body Repair News covering these and other topics can be accessed at:

- techinfo.honda.com
- techinfo.acura.com

When at the site, click on the “Collision Repair Information and Industry Position Statements” link.

###